About us

Comunn Eachdraidh Nis, the first historical society to be established in the Western Isles, has been recording and preserving the history and culture of North Lewis since 1977. A rolling programme of exhibitions document various aspects of island life. Our newly renovated facility is available for a range of functions, meetings and events.

Coimhearsnachd Community

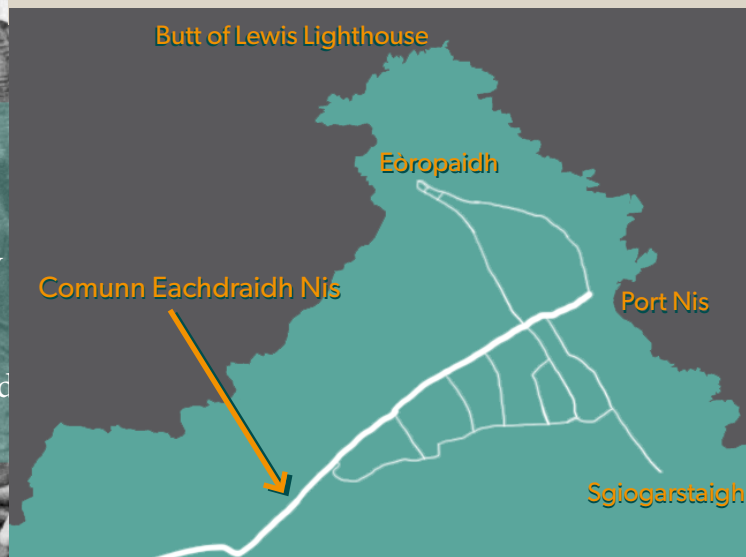

Comunn Eachdraidh Nis supports community groups of all ages in a range of activities to improve social health and wellbeing.
